

AMANDA JOHNSON CLINIC

July 3rd, 2011

CenterLine Dressage
Youth Clinic to be held at Tower Hill Equestrian Center

Amanda is a USDF Bronze, Silver and Gold medalist. In 2002, at the age of 21 she became the second youngest to receive the USDF Gold. Amanda and her self trained horse Glissade competed in the North American Young Riders Championships for the USDF Region 4 in 1999-2001, winning the consolation final in 2001. In 2001 they competed in the USET Festival of Champions in Gladstone placing third in the FEI Young Riders Individual. They have competed in the USDF/ABIC Region 4 Championships from First Level through Grand Prix including wins in 2000 for Prix St. George and Int-1, in 2002 for Int-2 and Grand Prix and in 2003 winning the Grand Prix Freestyle with a 66%. Amanda was a working student for George Williams during the summer of 1999-2001 and clinics with Conrad Schumacher from 1997-present. She has also ridden with Volker Brommann, Walter Zettl, Cindy Ishoy, Neil Ishoy, Steffen Peters, Gerhard Politz, Col. Christian Carde, Robert Dover, among many others. Amanda has coached riders to Regional Championships from Training Level to FEI, and she has coached students to their USDF Bronze and Silver medals. She accepts all breeds of horses for training and all levels of riders.

Youth CLD member.....	45.00
Youth non-member.....	75.00
Adult Amateur CLD member.....	75.00
Adult Amateur non-member.....	85.00
Stalls (day)	20.00
Stalls (Sat.pm-Sun.)....	30.00
Lunch	8.00

*1st preference to youth riders note: youth is 21 and younger as of Jan. 1, 2011
membership forms available @
centerlinedressage.com
Rides will begin at 8:00am*

Contact Teri Morenz for reservations to ride 217 415-8413 towerhillec@gmail.com
Tower Hill Eq. Center is located approx. 6 miles East of Springfield towerhillequestrian.com